Don Montgomery is a Partner in Selman Breitman's Los Angeles office and is a member of the firm's Insurance and Professional Liability practice groups. He represents insurers in coverage and related matters, with an emphasis in third party property-casualty issues in the construction, professional liability, auto, and environmental arenas. Don's practice includes the preparation of coverage opinions, reservations of rights, and declination letters, as well as the litigation of insurance coverage matters, including declaratory relief, equitable contribution and bad faith claims, from inception through trial and appeal. His experience also includes primary/excess issues and the representation of surplus lines carriers.

For the three most recent editions of the LexisNexis Matthew Bender Practice Guide: California Insurance Coverage and Litigation, Don served as a contributor to Chapter Four, on commercial general liability coverage, and Chapter Eight, which discusses rescission and reformation. Both chapters discuss related pertinent issues and controlling authorities.

Prior to joining Selman Breitman, Don represented commercial transportation carriers in personal injury and premise liability matters, including defense of catastrophic injury actions arising out of interstate trucking and transportation accidents.
