Sandra Farzam is an Associate in Selman Breitman's Los Angeles office and is a member of the firm's General Liability practice group. She represents insurance carriers, corporations, small businesses, and individuals in the defense of personal injury suits, including cases arising out of car accidents and catastrophic injury. Sandra's clients include transportation and rideshare companies.

Sandra's considerable experience provides her a unique ability to evaluate complex cases to provide practical advice and representation to her clients. She manages all aspects of litigation and works closely with clients in order to foster a collaborative approach in best serving her clients' needs.

While working toward her J.D. at USC Gould School of Law, Sandra externed for the Honorable Stephen Reinhardt on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. She also served as a submissions editor for the Southern California Review of Law and Social Justice. She received her B.A. from the University of California, Berkeley.

Sandra is originally from Santa Monica, California, and presently resides there. When not helping clients with their legal needs she enjoys spending time with her family, jogging, and traveling.
